The Philadelphia chapter of the American Association of Teachers of French invites you to its Virtual Fall Workshop

Dialogue on Gender Identity

vs.

Sexual Orientation for the Language Classroom

ON ZOOM

Saturday, November 13

Panel: Devin Browne (Pittsburgh Brashear High School) Sally Cushmore (Souderton Area High School), Sophie Pettit (University of California Davis) and Blossom Brown (educator, consultant, and activist)

How do we honor and respect all genders and all sexual orientations as teachers of Foreign Languages? What are the new pronouns and how do we introduce them in our classes? How can we have our students help us understand new terminology related to gender identity and sexual orientation with respect to their own identity?

AATF Philadelphia would like to invite you to discuss these questions with a panel of people whose life experiences on the non-binary and transgendered path can help us explore our own beliefs and navigate our classrooms. Join us in welcoming our panelists for a thoughtful discussion.

This free workshop, to be presented in English, is open to all world language teachers.
